Wednesdays and Thursdays
 Mapping out your spiritual life for 2020 and beyond.

"The Me I Want to Be" by John Ortberg—bestselling author of "When the Game Is Over," "It All Goes Back in the Box," "God Is Closer Than You Think," and "The Life You've Always Wanted"—will help you discover spiritual vitality like never before as you learn to "live in the flow of the spirit." But if God has a perfect vision for your life, why does spiritual growth seem so difficult? Ortberg has some intriguing answers to that question, and has organized his thoughts and God's words into a straightforward and timely guide for living your best life in "The Me I Want to Be." Participant guides can be ordered online at Amazon.

Elder Selection

After much thought, prayers, and bible study, Northtown is blessed to have three men put their names before the congregation to serve as our Shepherds/Elders. The three men are Evan Bane, John McAdams, and Bob Monroe (also, a huge thank you to Lisa, Lynda, and Penny). The Apostle Paul defines the role of the Elders when he states “For I have not hesitated to proclaim to you the whole will of God. Keep watch over yourselves and all the flock of which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers. Be shepherds of the church of God, which he bought with his own blood” (Acts 20:27). The next step is to have a two-week process in which individuals who may have biblical concerns with any of the men, will go to the person privately and resolve any questions. (Sunday, January 26th). On February 2nd, (Super Bowl Sunday, Leap Year), we will have an installation ceremony. This is a wonderful start to the New Year and New Decade.

Also, a thank you goes out to the whole congregation for your patience and participation. Several men were suggested for the role of elder; however, because of biblical qualifications, stage of life, health, and personal concerns this was not the time for them to serve. If you have a question for anyone whose name is not on the list, please talk to them personally or see Alex.
